

What our customers say.....

"I feel as if I've known you at Barbury for years, such a lovely feeling to be made to feel a friend and not just as a paying guest. Makes a huge difference."

"We so enjoyed our afternoon of clay pigeon shooting, it was extremely well organized and thoroughly enjoyed by us all. I would definitely like to do this again in the future."

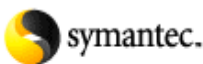

"Thank you for organising a perfect afternoon. Everyone had a fabulous time and all the feedback was positive. I also heard very good things about your chocolate cake!"

"I'd like to say a huge thank you for the excellent organisation of our clay day. The event was a great success thanks to you and your team"

"I have had many calls from the team today saying how much they enjoyed yesterday. You really do have a lovely venue at Barbury and hopefully we can visit again soon."

'Thank you for the excellent corporate day you provided us with last Friday, the feedback from everyone has certainly been very positive. We all had a great day.'

Confidence in a connected world.

"I would just like to thank you again for a fantastic day. The service you provided for the meeting was perfectly balanced with a personal and friendly feel, not something you get at most meeting venues, and the shooting afternoon was very well planned"
