

Press Release – October 2011

Barbury Shooting School stages the Marlborough Challenge Shield 2011

Hosted by Marlborough College, the 7th annual Marlborough Challenge Shield competition took place at Barbury Shooting School on Tuesday 11th October 2011 and attracted teams from Marlborough College, Bradfield College, Harrow School, Wellington School and Millfield School. Nine teams of 5 guns shot a 40 sporting individual competition followed by a team flush. Marlborough College triumphed in the team competition with their A team taking the Marlborough Challenge Shield. Jessica Burgess from Bradfield College was the Top Lady Gun closely followed by Lauren Max and Margarita from Millfield. The Top Gun was won by Giles Hodgson from Harrow School following a tense shoot off with Theo Backhouse and Jamie Quinn of who are both from Marlborough College.

For further details or photographs please contact Barbury Shooting School on 07872 666154 or visit the website on www.barburysshoot.com

The winning team from Marlborough College

The Top Guns

The Top Lady Guns

About Barbury Shooting School

Located in the beautiful Marlborough Downs in Wiltshire, Barbury Shooting School offers expert tuition and shooting for clay & game shooters alike. Voted Shooting Ground of the Year 2010-2011, this family run business caters for all levels of experience and can provide party and corporate shooting programs and Simulated Game Days tailored to individual requirements. For further details, please visit www.barburysshoot.com

Media Contact

Lorna Davies

07872 666154

enquiries@barburysshoot.com